

Todd & Weld LLP

Complex Business Litigation

From the boardroom to the courtroom, our experienced attorneys guide corporate clients, both large and small, foreign and domestic, through complex commercial disputes. We have considerable trial court experience pursuing and defending against complex commercial lawsuits. Todd & Weld commercial litigation attorneys represent virtually every type and size of entity involved in business disputes – including individuals, proprietorships, partnerships, limited liability entities, business trusts, publicly held corporations, close corporations, and joint ventures.

Our unwavering approach is to prepare carefully planned, creative, and cost-effective strategies for the successful pursuit, defense and/or resolution of all types of business disputes. We guide businesses through commercial disputes in state and federal courts, including the Massachusetts Business Litigation Session, as well as in arbitrations and mediations.

We advise and represent corporate clients in such matters as:

- Breach of contract
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Business torts
- Antitrust
- Unfair and deceptive trade practices
- Trade secrets and non-competition agreements
- Corporate freeze-outs
- Shareholder derivative lawsuits

- Proxy contests
- Corporate takeover battles
- Class actions
- Franchise and distribution conflicts
